Eleventh grade is different from ninth and tenth grade because it is heavily guided by the College Board/ AP Curriculum and intended to prepare students for the AP Language and Composition Exam in May. (A passing grade on the three-hour exam can earn students a semester's worth of English credit in college.) Since most students come in to 11th grade with little to no experience with rhetoric (the primary focus of the Language and Composition course), we have to work very hard and squeeze A ...
