Mum's List stars Emilia Fox as Kate and Rafe Spall as Singe (Singe is short for St John, what were his parents thinking?). This film is based on the real-life Singe's best-selling book, and takes a non-linear approach: we dart back and forth between life after Kate, the two of them as lovelorn teens, and their lives as young newlyweds coping with their son's cancer.

Mum's List review - sweet and sad story of life after loss ...

Mum's List is a moving story that has stuck with me, even if the film has been overshadowed by bigger films on the same subject. I found watching this to be a very emotional experience, crying throughout, although the film is not overly sentimental and fairly restrained in its approach, feeling both genuine and realistic in its portrayal of grief.

Mums are ideal for containers because of their shallow root systems. Use those pots of blooming mums sold in the fall as annuals to replace summer annuals that are past their prime. Tuck the mums in beds, borders or planters to keep the color coming until frost. Plant them in beds or borders in the early spring or fall as perennials.
